Essentials for the first 48 hours: BRING TO CAMP SET-UP SUNDAY MORNING - Clothes:

light warm weather clothes, pants, layers, winter jacket, sleep clothes - Sleeping mask

- Umbrella
- If you'll be showering in a dorm other than your own near the encampment, bring shower supplies
- Sunglasses if you want to cover up
- Keffiyehs
- If you will be attending class online on Monday, bring a laptop and headphones - Any medical supplies or medication you need regularly

Crowdsource: IF YOU HAVE IT AND HAVE SPACE, BRING IT

- Extension cables/ power cords
- Lights (portable is much better)
- Power banks
- Brittas or LARGE jugs (can fill in Mccullough with filtered water)
- Headlamps or flashlights
- Insect repellent spray
- Containers for food: to bring food in bulk from dining halls
- Masks (health, privacy)
- Tarp for the floor of the whole area

Camp Leaders will bulk buy or bring:

- Palestinian flags for each tent - secured
- Gear items - secured
- Banners/ art stuff from Weybridge - secured
- First aid kit (bandages, antiseptic wipes, painkillers) - secured
- Snacks

Additional suggestions (luxury):

- Hammocks
- Non-educational entertainment to spend the time, - clothing to get dirty
- Speakers (if you have JBL that's preferred for syncing purposes)
- Projector
- Large cloth for projecting -

Lawn chairs

small tables